

Privacy Policy

3 Peaks Computers, LLC holds your privacy very seriously! While visiting our site, any information gathered before, during, or after your stay will be held confidential as to you personally.

When coming to our site, data gathered may tell us where you are coming from, the search engine that directed you to us, or other data that might help us with our marketing strategy.

While on our site, your IP (internet protocol) address may be captured for security purposes. For example, when signing online contracts, your IP will be captured as proof of visitation on said exact date and time.

Any personal information (name, address, email, etc) that may be associated to you will be held with strict confidence. 3 Peaks Computers will NOT be holding or storing of any financial data associated to you, your visit, or purchases. Any purchases made on or through our site will be processed through a third part financial institution and no personal banking information will be stored on 3 Peaks Computers, LLC servers or storage.

Data captured during contract signing is for legal purposes only. By checking "yes" and typing your name, you are agreeing this is your legal signature. The capture of your IP address, date of signing, and time of signing will be stored with your signature for validity.

You use 3 Peaks Computers, LLC website at your own risk. We strive to keep our data safe, secure, and confidential at all times.

3 Peaks Computers, LLC reserves the right to edit or modify this document at any time without notice. Please continue to check back for updated or edited versions.

Updated: 31 Dec 2009